Result • Case Study Example

Weir Minerals engaged Nationwide to design and implement a solution for mixed timber waste. They had unsuccessfully tried to get assistance from their current contractor (a large waste company that owns landfills) on multiple occasions. After testing and trials, Nationwide implemented a diversion strategy that in the first 12 months diverted thousands of cubic meters of mixed wood waste from landfill. If laid end to end, these pallets would stretch from Darling Harbour to the end of one of the runways at Mascot Airport.
